

Dear Fellow Canadian Churchillians:

New Friends of Winston Churchill

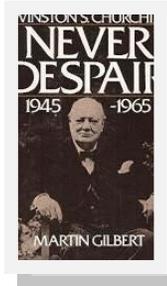

A very warm welcome to: Sean Carter and Christopher Bell .

Next Event – Ted Barris on his new book “The Dam Busters” October 11, 2018, Albany Club of Toronto

We are delighted to have back one of our favorite speakers. Ted Barris last spoke to the Society in October 2017 on his book “The Great Escape” to a very positive audience reaction. Enclosed is the Flyer and reservations can be made by postal mail or even better on our web site via PayPal, which doesn’t require you to be registered with PayPal – early reservation suggested to ensure you are not disappointment.

Next Event - Southern Georgian Bay Churchillians- Collingwood, Ontario, Royal Canadian Legion, September 28, 2018, 7.00 PM – 9.00 PM

“Winston Churchill & The Dieppe Raid” is the Theme, with a fresh assessment in view of the revisionist opinion of Professor David O’Keefe, that the main objective was to “pinch” a four-rotor Enigma Machine. ICS Canada Director Terry Reardon squared off against O’Keefe in the current Royal Canadian Legion magazine and will be present to speak on the raid and the part played by Winston Churchill. Also in the programme will be “5 Minute” speakers on a favorite Churchill Book and a DVD “Never Despair” which covers the end of WWII with VE Day, Churchill’s Iron Curtain Speech, Back as P.M. in 1951, Queen Elizabeth’s Coronation in 1953, and moving coverage of Churchill’s Funeral in 1965, etc.

The Royal Canadian Legion Magazine

Essential reading for many is the Bi-Monthly magazine.

As stated above the July/August 2018 issue included a “Face to Face” confrontation between David O’Keefe and Terry Reardon.

The Unrelenting Struggle, 2nd. Vol. of Winston Churchill's War Speeches.

The Speech to the Canadian Senate And House of Commons, Ottawa, Broadcast to the World, December 30, 1941

2nd Instalment

“The Canadian Army now stationed in England has chafed not to find itself in contact with the enemy. But I am here to tell you that it has stood and still stands in the key position to strike at the invader should he land on our shores. In a few months, when the invasion season returns, the Canadian Army may be engaged in one of the most frightful battles the world has ever seen, but on the other hand their presence may help to deter the enemy from attempting to fight such a battle on British soil. Although the long routine of training and preparation is undoubtedly trying to men who left prosperous farms and businesses, or other responsible civil work, inspired by an eager and ardent desire to fight the enemy, the service rendered is unquestionable, and I am sure that the peculiar kind of self-sacrifice involved will be cheerfully or at least patiently, endured.

The Canadian Government have imposed no limitation on the use of the Canadian Army, whether on the Continent of Europe or elsewhere, and I think it is extremely unlikely that this war will end without the Canadian Army coming to close quarters with the Germans, as their fathers did at Ypres, on the Somme, or on the Vimy Ridge. Already at Hong Kong, that beautiful colony which the industry and mercantile enterprise of Britain has raised from a desert isle and made the greatest port of shipping in the whole world – Hong Kong, that Colony wrested from us for a time until we reach the peace table, by the overwhelming power of the Home Forces of Japan, to which it lay in proximity – at Hong Kong Canadian soldiers of the Royal Rifles of Canada and the Winnipeg Grenadiers, under a brave soldier whose loss we mourn, have played a valuable part in gaining precious days, and have crowned with military honour the reputation of their native land.
